LIBRARY ADVISORY COMMITTEE (LAC)

LAC plays an advisory and advocacy role regarding the library on matters of general policy, planning, programs, goals, and objectives in its support of teaching, learning, research and community-building needs of the college.

Objectives –

- Facilitating communication with and obtaining feedback from the College students on library collections, programs, services, infrastructure, and communication mechanisms.

- To provide a forum for discussing College Library and its community's needs and expectations for information.

- To act as advocates for the Library in College-wide decision-making groups.

- To advise the library on policy matters concerning services, resources and facilities.

- To provide an opportunity to raise and discuss initiatives in the provision of library and information services.

- To facilitate communication between the library and the community it serves.
