Cultural Competitions on Lohri

K.M.S. College of IT and Management celebrated Lohri with great enthusiasm at Kumar Auditorium. The event, chaired by Chairman Chaudhary Kumar Saini, emphasized the celebration of cultural competitions through performances and activities that showcase the rich traditions of Punjab.

The presence of esteemed guests like NRI Sunny Singh Dhudh, Chairman and Chief Advisor of the Democratic Party, Michigan, USA, along with retired headmaster Amarjeet Singh Saini, added to the grandeur. Their participation highlighted the importance of cultural inclusivity and fostering talent through competitions.

The event showcased diverse performances including Giddha, Bhangra, Haryanvi dance, and various skits. These activities provided a platform for students to display their talents while embracing the vibrant cultural heritage of Punjab and India.

Principal Dr. Shabnam Kaur emphasized the role of cultural celebrations in holistic development and community engagement. Her speech inspired students and faculty to continue fostering cultural pride and unity.

The generous donation of Rs. 2 lakhs by Mr. Dhudh recognized the college's efforts in promoting cultural diversity and excellence through competitions.

The event concluded with the honouring of chief guests and participants, celebrating their contributions to the success of the cultural competitions. Faculty, HODs, and students from various departments collectively reinforced the spirit of unity and cultural appreciation.
